Reading Comprehension Worksheet

Q1. What sport did Lottie discover the children playing in the lane beyond the hedge?

Q2. Why did Lottie's parents lock the eastern gate?

Q3. What special thing did Lottie find in the storeroom that belonged to her mother?

Q4. How did the Dragonfly Girls win the final match?

Q5. Lottie chose the name “Rose” instead of telling the team she was a princess. Why do you think she made this choice?

Q6. Billy left a clean towel by the shed door for Lottie but never said anything about it. What does this small action tell us about Billy’s character?

Challenge: Creative Writing Challenge

In the final chapter, Lottie and her mother sit together in the storeroom, each holding their muddy football boots. The story says: 'For a while neither of them said anything at all. They didn't need to.' Write the conversation they might have had if they had talked. What would Lottie want to say to her mother? What would Queen Amanda want to tell Lottie about her own football days? Write their conversation.
